We integrate 21st Century skills into all courses

Learning English isn't just about learning a language. At WSE, we don't just teach English. We prepare our students for life in an international world. The intercultural skills that our students need to thrive and succeed go beyond language. Several skills have been identified as crucial to succeeding in academic study, business and life, and we incorporate these into every part of our programmes.

But perhaps the most important aspect of studying at WSE is that you will meet people from all over the world, with different lives, different families, different customs and traditions. You will explore not only UK culture, but cultures around the world. You will live, work and play together, in class, in our homestays and student houses, and on our busy social activity programme. There is no better teacher than experience and the experience you gain at WSE will give you the tools you need to manage in an international environment.

Academic Skills

You will develop these skills during your course through various activities, such as:

- Group work – negotiation and communication
- Research – time management, critical thinking
- Writing essays – critical thinking, planning, organisation

Homestay

Homestay providers can be very different but they have two things in common: a genuine desire to welcome people into their homes and lives, and a clean and comfortable home.

Students should not expect a replica of their own home. Homestays offer a taste of Britain and students may have to adapt to different homestay environments while they are in the UK. Students should also remember that the UK has a rich history and is proud of its cultural diversity. Our homestay providers are a reflection of our society and come from different backgrounds, age groups and socio-economic groups. We do not discriminate but welcome all homestays that fit our basic criteria. London is a multi-ethnic society and some homestay providers are not of English origin but all speak English to a very high standard. We try to match students with host families and to find the right homestay for everyone.

Key Points

- Check-in is between 07:30 and 23:00
- Most homestay accommodation is in single rooms
- There will be no more than 4 students in the family
- Many of our host families are non-smokers
- Many British people have pets – usually a cat or a dog
- If you are in Bed and Breakfast or Independent homestay you may not have as many opportunities to practise your English as you may not be sitting down for a meal with your host(s)
- It is important to book early and to tell us about your requirements, e.g. diet, smoking, children and pets
- You may arrive and leave the homestay accommodation on a Saturday or Sunday
- B&B and Independent students will not have meals with hosts so there will be limited interaction.

Additional Charges

- There is a £50 supplement per week for halal, coeliac /gluten free / lactose free and vegan diets
- If available, an extra Saturday night can be booked on your departure weekend for an additional charge
- There is a £80 per week supplement if you wish to stay in homestay over the 2-week Christmas and New Year holiday period. If you are in a student residence over Christmas and New Year, charges remain the same

Insurance

Before you arrive in the UK, we strongly recommend that you take out insurance for your own financial and personal security. You can take out your own insurance or take out the International Student Policy offered by Endsleigh, which has been specially designed for overseas students studying in the UK.

Please note: It is advisable to take out your student insurance at the time of booking your trip, as cover will commence for pre-departure cancellation from the policy issue date. This will, therefore, provide cover should you have to cancel your course for a valid reason such as illness or serious accident preventing you from travelling.

Endsleigh International Student Policy

The International Student Policy covers:

- Emergency medical expenses
- Repatriation
- Cancellation or curtailment charges
- Personal money, passport and documents
- Baggage
- Course fees
- Personal liability
- Legal expenses

Airport Transfers

The school can arrange a private car service to meet you at any London airport or at St Pancras International Station. All drivers are police-checked (DBS) and used to helping international students, so your journey will be safe, comfortable and easy. You can book your transfer when you book your course, or up to one week before you arrive. Please email us your flight details at least 4 days before your arrival.
