More Than Teachers

Mentors for Life

At ATC, our educators are more than instructors, they are mentors for life. Our programmes are designed with academic depth, real-world relevance, and learner progression at their core.

Staff frequently highlight the impact of our warm, professional approach:

"Quality teaching delivered with care and commitment."

ATC Staff Culture Survey 2025

Dedicated, personal mentorship

Teachers and academic staff take personal interest in each student's progress - their confidence, goals, and wellbeing.

Cross-cultural guidance

With an international community and multilingual staff, learners find both academic and emotional support in their journey.

"My teachers were extremely creative, fun, attentive and encouraging."

Sabrina (Germany)
General English, ATC Bray

Qualified, experienced educators

Our academic team works closely with each student to inspire growth, creativity, and confidence that lasts a lifetime.

Ongoing support

Beyond formal lessons, informal mentoring helps students stay motivated, feel valued and fosters stronger student-teacher relationships.

How we teach...

The curriculum is designed to develop a student's overall level of English, including their use of English grammar and vocabulary, with a focus on the key skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening.

Teachers at ATC follow a student-centred, communicative approach to teaching with a strong emphasis on supporting students to use English in a variety of communicative situations.

In our task-based lessons students will interact with their classmates, carrying out a variety of goal-oriented tasks through English, supported with extensive feedback from their teachers.

Students will take a range of progress tests and skills assessments to highlight areas for further development and ensure progression.

Your Journey, Your Pace

The Irish Study & Work immigration Stamp 2 allows qualifying non-EU students the opportunity to study for a minimum of 15 hours per week, while legally working in Ireland for up to a maximum of 20 hours per week.

The Stamp 2 is valid for 8 months; 25 weeks, to study and 8 weeks of holidays. During designated holiday dates, students can work to a maximum of 40 hours per week.

Students have the option of renewing their Stamp 2 for a further two times as long as certain conditions are met, including a minimum of 85% attendance at school.

Most students choose ATC's accommodation for the first few weeks to allow them time to familiarise themselves with Bray or Dublin. See page 22 for options.

Teacher Training

& Erasmus+ Funded Mobilities

ATC welcomes educators and academic staff from across the globe to elevate their teaching and language skills with our 1 or 2 week practical training programmes.

These can be taken as standalone programmes, or combined with another training course or General English programme.

Ideal for language teachers and those who want to develop core, cross-curricular teaching skills through English, these courses focus on topics such as English language development, inclusive practices, digital tools, CLIL, STEAM, AI, and more.

All participants are welcome to join ATC's Weekly Social Activity Programme & Cultural Excursions.

Erasmus+

All General English, Intensive English and Teacher Training courses at ATC Language Schools are eligible for Erasmus+ KA1 funding and include certification of learning outcomes.

For applications using Erasmus+ funding, please note that ATC Language Schools' OID is E10365795.

What you get when choosing ATC for your Teacher Training course:

An interactive programme with ATC's experienced teacher trainers where you

- benefit from engaging and practical training sessions
- participate in workshops and activities led by ATC's expert trainers
- enjoy innovative approaches to teacher development delivered by teachers who bring years of classroom experience.

Focused training in new methodology that allows you

- to stay ahead in your teaching practice with targeted sessions
- to explore the latest trends in English language teaching
- to cover topics from technology integration to inclusive classroom strategies.

Lively discussions in an international learning environment that

- connects you with fellow educators in dynamic group discussions
- encourages you to collaborate on tasks, fostering a vibrant exchange of ideas and cultural perspectives
- combine personal and professional growth enabling you to gain new skills and fresh ideas to reinvigorate your classroom teaching while boosting your confidence as an educator
- implement creative lesson plans, master classroom management techniques and develop leadership skills.

At the end of your programme you'll return home feeling inspired and ready to take on new challenges, as well as having a desire to return to ATC for your next professional development course.

"My fourth time at ATC Dublin, this time, Teaching in the Age of AI... It's incredible how much I learned in one week... the exchange between colleagues is one of the most valuable elements of the courses at ATC."

Accommodation

Stay in Comfort

Your Home Away from Home

Comfortable, safe, and welcoming accommodation is a key part of your study abroad experience. At ATC, we have a dedicated accommodation team who not only offer carefully selected options to suit your lifestyle, preferences, and budget, but also support you throughout your stay too!

Host Family Accommodation

We believe that staying with a local Irish host family is the ideal way to immerse yourself into Irish culture and practice English outside of the classroom. Some of our hosts have been welcoming ATC students for many years, some over two generations.

ATC Bray

Our host families are in the coastal town of Bray and most are within walking distance, usually between 30 and 55 minutes, sometimes higher in peak season.

ATC Dublin

All host families are located in residential suburbs of Dublin, within easy reach of public transport. Students can expect to travel between 30 and 60 minutes to school.

-  Single rooms available age 18+
Twin rooms available age 16+
-  Arrivals & Departures Saturday or Sunday
-  Half-board Monday to Friday
-  Full-board weekends

-  Minimum duration 1 week
-  All hosts Garda-vetted (police checked)
-  Dedicated accommodation team
-  Always someone to greet you on your arrival

"Beyond the academic learning at ATC, this experience allowed me to live with an Irish family and to discover, from within, a culture different from my own."

LinguaStay offers immersive UK study-abroad stays, pairing learners with English-speaking hosts for real-life language practice. Programmes blend sightseeing, lessons, and activities, plus the English Friends scheme for informal conversation with friendly locals. Perfect for improving speaking skills while exploring British culture in a fun, engaging way.

Living English is a dynamic demi-pair agency based in Bray and Dublin, Ireland. From 2000, we have been offering international students the opportunity to immerse themselves into family life with children; while attending English language classes, with other students, at ATC Language Schools in either Bray or Dublin.

UKLC delivers residential and homestay English programmes for ages 8-18, blending language learning with cultural activities. With 20+ years' experience, we inspire confidence, independence, and global outlook. Trusted worldwide, our dedicated team provides exceptional facilities, ensuring young learners grow through education, cultural immersion, and memorable experiences in the UK.
