Hilderstone College

Hilderstone College is a non-profit language centre specialising in English language teaching and teacher training. Since 1970 Hilderstone has established an outstanding reputation for running top quality courses for adult students and teachers from all over the world. We work closely with universities, companies and government agencies in the UK and worldwide.

Quality

We aim to provide students with the highest quality in all aspects of their course – in the classroom, with homestay hosts, in the College itself, and outside the College during social activities. We have a rigorous system of quality assurance, and we do everything we can to ensure that students enjoy and benefit from their time at the College. Hilderstone is accredited by the British Council, and is a member of English UK and IALC.

On one of our courses you will:

- improve your English fast and effectively
- gain wide experience of the language
- enjoy your learning
- meet people from Britain and all over the world.

College Facts and Figures

- The College was established in 1970
- Last year we welcomed students from 36 different countries
- The top ten nationalities were: Dutch, German, Italian, Korean, Spanish, Saudi, Swiss, Thai, Turkish, and UAE
- The age of students last year ranged from 16 to 74
- 99% of students in the last 5 years have said the College is 'good' or 'very good'
- The College is a Cambridge FCE, CAE and IELTS Exam Preparation Centre and Trinity Test Centre
- The College has 22 classrooms, as well as a multimedia learning centre, cafeteria and a prayer room. The site also has a theatre
- The maximum class size on courses for adults is 12, and the average last year was 8
- The College building is open from 8am to 10pm each weekday for students.

Napatsorn from Thailand

Hilderstone is the best language college I have ever known. Good accommodation, the best teachers, friendly local people and town.

Broadstairs

A great place to stay

Hilderstone College is located in the centre of Broadstairs, a beautiful seaside town with wonderful, golden, sandy beaches, on the south-east coast of England. It is attractive and friendly with excellent residential areas within walking distance. There is a great choice of small shops, restaurants, coffee bars and pubs in the town centre and on the seafront. Not far from the College is a modern shopping centre, and there are cinemas, swimming pools, sports facilities and much more in the local area.

The town dates back over 700 years and has many historical connections, including to Queen Victoria, Charles Dickens and smugglers. It continues to be a popular destination for people coming on breaks and holidays, as well as to enjoy the many annual festivals and events which fill its busy calendar.

Easy to reach

Travelling to Broadstairs is easy – just one hour and twenty minutes from London by high speed train. The town is also close to the port of Dover, as well as the international stations of Ashford and Ebbsfleet. Travelling from a London airport – Gatwick, Heathrow, Stansted, or City – is simple: either take a train straight into London and catch the direct train to Broadstairs, or use the local airport shuttle coach service. If you prefer, we can arrange for a taxi to collect you from the airport and take you straight to your accommodation.

Megumi from Japan

Broadstairs is a lovely town next to the sea. I really like the beaches, the little shops and going out in the evenings with my friends.

i Key Information

- The College is in the heart of the town, 100 metres from the railway station, and 800 metres from the beach
- The town has 7 golden, sandy beaches
- There are shops, supermarkets, cafes, pubs, restaurants, banks, a library, a gym and a cinema, all in the town centre
- The town has tennis courts, a golf course, a surf school, a sailing club and a coastal cycle path
- There is a modern shopping centre, Westwood Cross, on the edge of the town with shops, supermarkets, a multiplex cinema and restaurants
- There are events in the town throughout the year, including a Dickens festival, Broadstairs Folk Week and blues music and food festivals
- There are regular firework displays on the beach in July and August
- Broadstairs is located in the county of Kent, known as the Garden of England, and is one of the driest and warmest parts of Great Britain.

Learning at Hilderstone College

At Hilderstone we aim to create an integrated learning environment to give you a complete experience of English. Different people learn in different ways, so our teachers use a variety of methods, materials and technology to ensure that your lessons are stimulating and that you progress as quickly as possible.

All our courses for adults (except One-to-One and the Vacation Course for over 50s) offer 21 full hours of classes and up to 14 hours of additional supervised self-access study and/or examination practice per week. They all offer the Hilderstone experience: excellent teaching, an intensive course, a lively social programme, and the chance to use your English and make friends with people from England and from all over the world.

Classes on our courses for adults are small – average 8 students, maximum 12 – and most operate with continuous enrolment. The minimum age is 16 on adult intensive English, Cambridge examination, academic English and closed group courses (other courses, subject to suitability).

Below is a typical timetable for one week of a course at Hilderstone College. Your own timetable may be a little different, but will certainly be as full and interesting as this.

Evenings	Welcome evening at the College	An evening of folk dancing or live music	Evening talk on an aspect of British culture	Multimedia Learning Centre	Students' club evening

Teaching Staff

One of the key strengths of the College is the quality of its teachers, who are carefully chosen for their qualifications and experience. Most have taught English in other countries as well as in the UK.

Teaching methods

Our teachers use a wide range of up-to-date materials and technology, and are constantly involved in the discussion and sharing of new ideas and the production of teaching materials, based on English as it is used today. We believe that if you want to learn English fast and effectively, you need to enjoy your learning and your classes. Variety is part of this – in teaching styles, materials and activities. Our teachers are friendly, accessible and always happy to offer help and advice – or just have a chat!

Learning Facilities

Our superb multimedia Learning Centre is an important part of the teaching programme and is popular for self-access study after class. It is open every day and some evenings. There will always be a member of staff to help you with anything you need.

Computer workstations

Students have free computer access, and are given a Google for Education account from which they can access the internet, practise their English with online materials and resources, communicate with other students and their teacher, prepare homework or presentations, and keep in touch with family and friends at home.

Listening stations

Our touch-screen listening stations are a wonderful way to help you practise and improve your listening skills for exam preparation, the workplace and everyday communication.

Exam preparation and practice

If you plan to take an English language exam during your course, our Learning Centre has all the essential materials you will need and is a quiet place to study after class.

Study materials and resources

The Learning Centre has a wide range of study materials to help you practise grammar, vocabulary, business English, reading, listening and writing. There are also dictionaries, newspapers, magazines, DVDs and library books at different levels which you can borrow.

Rafael from Brazil

The Learning Centre was the best and most helpful thing for me. I used to read the audio books and do the CAE exams. It helped me a lot to improve my English. I was looking for a good school. I couldn't be more satisfied.

Other College Facilities

- Free Wi-Fi access throughout the College
- Google for Education account for every student
- Cafeteria offering freshly prepared lunches as well as hot and cold drinks and snacks
- Prayer Room
- Gardens for students to relax in
- Common Room open throughout the day and evening with newspapers and drinks machines
- Lower Common Room with TV and DVD player and pool table
- Table tennis available after class most days
- Use of hall and theatre.

Intensive English Course

This course is designed to improve your English language skills for work, study, travel or pleasure.

We offer classes at all levels from elementary to advanced, and make every effort to ensure a good mix of nationalities. Excellent teaching, clear course objectives which reflect the needs of adult learners, a wide range of resources and facilities, and a caring, experienced teaching team all help to ensure you make maximum progress.

A short intensive English course, for a minimum of one week, can give your English a real boost. A longer stay can see your ability in the language increase to a much higher level, to help you achieve your professional, academic or personal goals.

- Improve your listening, speaking, reading, writing, grammar and pronunciation
- Perfect for a short refresher course or summer vacation course, or for longer term progress
- Course designed for the needs of adult learners
- Regular progress tests, tutorials and guidance
- Classes at all levels from elementary to advanced
- 21 full teaching hours and up to 14 hours of additional, optional, supervised self-study each week.

” Anabel from Spain

I am completely satisfied with my experience at the college. I've learnt so much, not only grammar and vocabulary but also pronunciation, informal language and useful English that you can't learn from a book.

Courses for Groups

Since 1970, Hilderstone College has offered courses for groups of students, teachers, business people and organisations throughout the year.

A course to meet your specific needs

Many groups join our year-round courses to improve their overall level of English. We offer classes at all levels from elementary to advanced. Groups with participants at beginner or proficiency level, as well as groups with specific requirements, are taught in closed classes in order to focus on their particular needs.

Popular group courses include:

- Intensive general English
- Exam preparation e.g. IELTS, FCE, CAE, PET, KET, BEC
- Academic English and pre-university
- Business/Professional English
- English and heritage e.g. castles, country gardens, museums and galleries etc.
- Professional development courses for teachers of English and/or CLIL (see below).

Group courses for teachers

We can design your language and methodology course to include your specific requirements. The course can be offered at Hilderstone College, or in your own country, by our team of teacher trainers who are experienced in a wide range of specialist areas. Courses can be of any length and organised at any time of the year. All our courses for teachers are eligible for Erasmus+ funding for EU and EFTA/EEA teachers. Please visit our website for further information and advice on applying.

A Complete Package

All our courses for groups aged 16+ include, as a minimum:

- All tuition and teaching materials
- Use of the College's multimedia self-access facilities after class and some evenings
- Single-room homestay accommodation within walking distance of the College
- A programme of afternoon and evening social activities, including a weekly evening talk on an aspect of British life
- College registration fee
- End-of-course certificate
- Free homestay accommodation for a non-student group leader (for groups of 10 or more students)
- Free course for group leaders if required and if available (1 place for each 10 students).

Airport transfers, insurance, excursions, luncheon vouchers and other specific requests can be added in order to meet your exact requirements.

i Key Information

Course length: Minimum 1 week, no maximum.

Social programme

Evening activities

We organise a range of exciting and interesting evening activities, including quizzes, live music, film evenings, karaoke, folk and salsa dancing, a summer international show and themed evening events. Hilderstone is also home to a theatre group who frequently put on shows at the weekend.

Talks and presentations

Your course is also an opportunity to discover more about the British way of life and culture. We offer weekly evening talks on an aspect of British life, giving you a chance to get a greater understanding of the country and its people, as well as practising your listening skills.

Sports

We offer a range of free, indoor and outdoor sports opportunities throughout the year. There is also a wide selection of sports facilities and clubs in the local area, including gymnasiums, tennis, golf, martial arts, sailing and a surf school.

Weekly excursions

With half-day excursions every Friday afternoon and full-day excursions every Saturday, you will have the opportunity to visit some of the most famous places in England. Before an excursion we give you information about the destination, and members of staff are always present to give help and advice.

Accommodation

Most of our students choose to stay in one of our excellent homestays. Living with a homestay host is an important part of the Hilderstone College experience. It will give you an opportunity to find out about the British way of life and to practise the English you learn.

A warm welcome

We select our homestay hosts very carefully. Our Accommodation and Welfare Officer knows each host and, from the information you give on your enrolment form, will choose a homestay where you will be happy.

Enjoy your free time

Everyone needs time to relax. At the end of the day, after your studies, you can look forward to a pleasant meal and a chat with your homestay host. The College has a full programme of social activities for you to enjoy in the evenings and at the weekends.

Help and advice

The Accommodation and Welfare Officer, or another member of staff, is always available to help and advise you throughout your stay.

For other types of accommodation (e.g. hotel or self-catering), upon request, we can give you a list from the Visit Thanet website where, if you wish, you can make a booking.
