Course Content

Teaching Methodology (09:00 – 12:30)

As a group you will explore practical and stimulating ways to make learning effective in the CLIL class room.

Language Focus (13:30 – 15:45)

These two hours will be dedicated to improving your general competence in English: comprehension, fluency and vocabulary extension. There may also be opportunities to observe and feed back on EFL classes and discuss best practice with our teachers.

Typical Areas of Focus

- The importance of functional language
- Developing and understanding task-based learning principles and techniques of correction, both written and oral
- Developing students' four skills
- Presentation and practice of new language
- Dealing with students' pronunciation
- Understanding learner motivation
- Using project work in the classroom
- Testing and assessment
