About Dublin

Ireland has been named the World's Friendliest Country twice by Lonely Planet. Dublin, known as "The City of a Thousand Welcomes," reflects this with its lively and welcoming vibe, making people feel at home quickly. Its mix of history and vibrant energy offers visitors a warm, friendly experience.

About Emerald

'People are at the heart of what we do. We provide a transformative educational and cultural experience within a positive, nurturing environment where both students and staff can grow and prepare to meet their personal and professional goals.'

Our Palmerston Park school is located in the beautiful residential neighbourhood of Rathgar, in the south of Dublin. Set in its own beautifully landscaped gardens, our school overlooks one of Dublin's oldest public parks, Palmerston Park, which dates from 1894. It offers students the chance to study English in a peaceful and stress-free environment with the city centre only a ten-minute tram journey away. The original school building is a gracious Victorian mansion and we have enriched the campus by adding a specially designed modern building with additional classrooms and a large serviced canteen.

Facilities and features include:

- Twenty-two modern classrooms
- Interactive technology
- Wi-Fi access throughout the campus
- Private landscaped garden with covered seating areas and heaters
- Large serviced canteen and coffee bar
- Library, reading room and study space
- Located in a prime residential neighbourhood within easy reach of Dublin city centre
