Our Alpha School training sessions set out to provide modern-day professionals with a range of active and creative skills and methodologies which can be implemented successfully in a professional and academic environment.

The sessions will act as a forum for professionals to share, build on and celebrate their own, as well as other people's, good practice within an open-minded environment, and in addition provide practical support and advice to try out new ideas.

We believe that allowing professionals to self-evaluate what they do and experiment with different techniques in a non-judgemental and non-threatening environment, away from their own institutions, is a vital part of a professional's continuing development programme.

We aim to provide participants with:

- High quality training
- A positive forum where ideas can be discussed and critiqued
- Comfortable and IT equipped training rooms
- Valuable resources and practical ideas that can be used effectively in the workplace.

Professional Practice - Course aims

APP - Advancing your Professional Practice

Courses in which one can advance their professional practice, also called APP by Alpha School of English, are unique on the island of Malta. Alpha school of English is known for its wide range of APP courses it provides. Each and every course is made from scratch and with a lot of passion by our professional and educated staff members. Whether you are interested in sustainability, technology, Artificial Intelligence, wellbeing or education - Alpha school of English will provide you with a course that suits your individual needs. In case you are interested in something different; we are also known for developing and delivering customised courses for you, your organisation or institution! We wish you a pleasant time reading through our course brochure and hope that you will find a suiting course.

APP Course aims

Every professional and/or teacher training course contains its individual, targeted course aims. However, every course will also include general course aims which are:

- To self-evaluate one's everyday professional practice, highlighting both strengths and areas for development, related to creative-based activities in a non-judgemental and non-threatening environment.
- To discuss, share and develop a wide range of creative ideas for use in the workplace by means of different media in order to convey curricula content to learners in relevant and engaging ways
- To evaluate the use of such creative methodologies; their effectiveness in meeting aims/objectives and their impact on the participants' understanding and retention of the delivered content.
- To discuss, share and develop IT-centric teaching and learning ideas and evaluate a number of classroom tools and applications using mobile technology and the Internet.

Background and Experience

Please briefly present the partner organisation

Alpha School is licensed by the ELT Council (Malta Ministry of Education) and accredited by FELTOM. It has a staff of highly qualified, experienced and dedicated teachers and teacher trainers who are all in possession of a teaching permit issued by the ELT Council.

The school has developed its own highly successful in-house training programme for teachers and offers training courses for both native and non-native speakers of English who would like to develop both their language skills and teaching methodology.

Teaching methods used at Alpha School are contemporary and innovative and make use of the latest technology.

What are the activities and experience of the organisation in the areas relevant for this application?

Alpha School was among the first EFL schools to open in Malta. It was established in 1991. The school has been established for 31 years and has developed its own specialised Professional and Teacher Training programmes.

The programmes are delivered by experienced trainers who are also practising teachers using the latest ELT multimedia resources. Alpha School now offers the largest range of teacher training courses in Malta including tailor-made courses for closed groups that are specifically designed to meet the needs of individual institutions. All our courses can also be followed online.

Alpha School has successfully hosted several teachers, school principals, interns and employees under various EU funded programmes including Erasmus+, PON and Knowledge Education Development.

Please give information on the key staff /persons involved in this application and on the competencies and previous experience that they will bring to the project.

The Teacher / Staff / Professional / Intern training programme is supervised by School Managing Director Ms Patricia Marshall B.A.(Hons.), P.G.C.E., CELTA, M.A. who has over 35 years' experience in TEFL as a teacher, teacher trainer, and examiner. She is assisted by a team of highly experienced staff including Mary Abela (Director of Studies), P.G.C.E in ESL, TESOL, CELTA, who coordinates the Alpha School Professional Training Programme.

Introduction to AI in Education - Day 1

In the first session, participants will learn the basics of AI and its relevance in the classroom. AI will be defined as well as its core functions in an educational setting and how common AI tools can support teaching and learning. By the end of the day, participants will have discussed potential benefits and challenges of AI integration and will have gained a better overall understanding of its influence and applicability.

AI for Lesson Planning and Content Creation - Day 2

An exploration of how AI can support lesson planning, resource creation, and personalisation will be conducted and gives a clearer understanding on how one can apply AI into their lessons. You will get the chance to experiment with AI tools for content generation and lesson planning and how it can be used to adapt materials for different learning needs.

Offsite Practical Task - AI in Action - Day 3

On today's offsite training, you will be going outside and have the opportunity to apply AI tools in a real-world teaching scenario. You will gather information, photos and/or videos that will be used for the presentation for the end of the course.

AI for Assessment and Feedback - Day 4

This session revolves around learning how AI can assist with grading, feedback, and student progress tracking. Participants will also engage in a discussion on the ethical consideration in AI-assisted grading and will develop strategies for combining AI with teacher-driven evaluation.

Presentation and Peer Feedback - Day 5

From the information, photos and/or videos gathered during the offsite practical task, you will prepare a presentation and sharing AI-enhanced lesson plans. Furthermore, you will be asked to provide constructive feedback on the AI-integrated lesson plans to peers as well as on giving constructive feedback on AI applications. The last discussion of the week will centre around identifying next steps for adopting AI in one's personal teaching practice and how the future of AI-integrated lessons may look like.

Specified course overview - week 1

Pedagogy - Day 1

The week starts off with an introduction and space for discussing, sharing and exploring ideas about teaching young learners in a school environment and how their learning style can impact your planning. Professionals will also be able to demonstrate effective scaffolding techniques to bring about understanding and progression, and will prepare and deliver a short vocabulary presentation aimed at different young audiences.

Storytelling - Day 2

Participants will explore different methodologies that can be used in a story-based lesson plan by experiencing a practical example from their trainer. Afterwards, an individual story-based activity will be planned and presented, focusing on a particular aspect of the English language.

Offsite Training - Day 3

Our cultural training day will include a trip to one of Malta's top attractions. You will take part in a cultural experience, and this will form the basis of a course-related project which will be delivered at the end of the week.

Songs, Games, Crafts & What Else? - Day 4

This session is dedicated to the exploration of a variety of 'learning through play' activities which help young learners to practise the target language in fun and interesting ways. There will also be an exercise of researching and presenting your findings on the different games available. This will encourage children to practise their language skills.

Resourcing, Online Activities & Dissemination - Day 5

Professionals will be introduced to some useful EFL websites, links, and applications for young learners. Afterwards, you will be given the opportunity, using any of the course content from the week, to plan, deliver and critique a suitable presentation. This should be aimed at your target audience, based on the offsite training day activities.

This course consists of a 10 day course but can also be booked as a 5 day course (week 1 or week 2)

Visual Clues and Topics - Day 1

The start of this week looks at important themes for very young learners, as well as teaching through visual stimuli. Afterwards, professionals will investigate a range of useful classroom resources for this broad topic area, and discuss interaction and pace.

Planning Your Own Great Lessons - Day 2

You will begin by sharing classroom knowledge and experience, looking at the importance of short-term, mid-term, and long-term planning in the curriculum. Next, you will look at effective lesson planning formats before engaging in a practical planning activity which also looks at feedback and aspects of assessment.

Offsite Training - Day 3

Our offsite training day will include a trip to one of Malta's top attractions. You will take part in a cultural experience, and this will form the basis of a course-related project which will be delivered at the end of the week.

Classroom Management - Establishing Routines - Day 4

This session investigates how we as teachers can help young learners feel safe, motivated, and relaxed by using clear language as well as applying consistent routines in our daily practice.

You will research and list the visual aids, songs, and other methodologies to establish clear routines, and you will talk about effective behaviour management.

Summing Up & Dissemination - Day 5

You will reflect on your learning from the course content and set a plan of action for your next steps back at your institution. You will then plan and deliver a presentation aimed at very young learners based on the offsite training day.

Specified course overview - week 1

Why Observations? - Day 1

This week starts off with a rationale behind lesson observations and the importance of CPD needs. Participants will also brainstorm ideas about elements necessary for a useful lesson observation and learn how to be realistic and understand the concept of 'snapshots'. Participants will also share what their institution does in terms of lesson observations, feedback and support as well as sharing good practice. The session concludes by critically analysing the process and suggesting how it could be developed.

The Who, When, and What of Observations - Day 2

Participants will discuss the suitability and qualifications of staff to carry out fair and effective observations and how to make the process ongoing and regular. In this session, professionals are encouraged to create consistency through paired observations and different aspects on how to give feedback, such as timetabling and recording feedback.

Offsite Training - Day 3

Our offsite training day will include a trip to one of Malta's top attractions. You will take part in a cultural experience, and this will form the basis of a course-related project which will be delivered at the end of the week.

Goal Setting - Day 4

Today's session informs professionals on how and when praise and support can be given in the feedback session. Additionally, it contains a list of possible future goals for teaching staff to develop their practice. During the session, you will also collaboratively come up with practical ideas for classroom practice to aid teaching and learning.

Presentations, Further CPD & Feedback - Day 5

Based on the offsite training day activities, you will prepare and deliver a mini learning episode which your peers will observe and evaluate. Feedback is given using the strategies learned throughout the week. Participants will also set goals related to lesson observations and staff welfare for your own institution.

Introduction to the IWB - Day 1

This session is all about getting to know what an IWB can do and how it can assist classroom teachers. By the end of this session, participants will know how to:

- Write on the board and setting background colours
- Manipulate text styles and colours and add and manipulate shapes

Participants will also have discussed how one could use 'The Basics' in their teaching and then putting this into practice by planning and carrying out a simple teaching activity on ActivInspire Studio with their classroom peers.

Media on the IWB - Day 2

Inserting, manipulating and editing a range of media and links from a number of locations - photos, videos, sound files and other documents from your laptop and the Internet. Discussing how you could use media items in your teaching and how to create your own multimedia files (i.e. video footage). Moreover, you will produce a teaching tool for use in the classroom. You will also learn some of the tricks and ideas for creating fun language activities for students.

Offsite Training - Day 3

Our offsite training day will include a trip to one of Malta's top attractions. This cultural experience will form the basis of a course-related project.

Lesson Planning on the IWB - Day 4

In this session, you will be shown how ActivInspire Studio can be used to create a whole lesson plan. For the practical element, you will choose a teaching/grammar focus and work in small groups to develop a 15-minute lesson, along with any additional supporting materials/resources. You will then share your ideas with the group by teaching your lesson to the class. Feedback will be given.

Presentation & Next Steps - Day 5

In this last session, you will use your new IWB skills by planning and delivering a presentation, or learning episode, complete with engaging resources, based on the offsite training day. You will assess your peers and give constructive feedback as well as get expert advice from your Alpha School tutor. This will be an invaluable element of the course, giving you precious time to think and plan creative and interactive lessons in a relaxed, yet professional, environment.

Specified course overview - week 1

Introductions - Day 1

On the first day, you will focus on personal introductions describing your place of work and job. Furthermore, you will learn how to meet and greet people in your organisation, both in a formal and informal manner. By the end of the session, you will have learned key vocabulary from the world of education and key vocabulary used in an office environment - basic equipment, technology, and longer phrases.

On the Phone & Online - Day 2

Participants will learn and practice answering the telephone, making requests and understanding responses whilst making notes in English when speaking to people on the telephone {or face-to-face}. The session also focuses on reading, understanding and answering emails - formally and informally. Lastly, you will learn how to use the Internet to scan for information and relaying your findings to others.

Offsite Training - Day 3

Our cultural training day will include a trip to one of Malta's top attractions. You will take part in a cultural experience, and this will form the basis of a course-related project which will be delivered next session.

Money Matters - Day 4

Today's session is all about improving your vocabulary range and grammar. By the end of the day, you will have improved by using key verbs and nouns associated with business and finance. Furthermore, a focus is laid on the use of vocabulary associated with financial matters produced when using IT. You will also have learned phrases for starting and leaving a conversation.

Presentations - Day 5

At the end of the course, participants will be able to identify the characteristics of a good and bad presentation. On your last day, important vocabulary related to presentations will be reviewed, including sentence stress and intonation patterns. Participants will then plan and deliver a short presentation related to the course content.

Learning outcomes

The subject of classroom management itself is indeed vast, varied, and convoluted. Nevertheless, we aim to equip you, during our bespoke course, with the tools needed to cover some of the most important aspects, by building on your existing knowledge and allowing you to work, share and develop ideas with other practitioners. We have included practical and academic elements within our classroom management sessions to meet the needs of all good educators who wish to motivate, praise, and manage their students effectively.

Specified course overview - week 1

Rationale & Rules - Day 1

In the first session, you will compare and contrast what constitutes effective classroom management and what constitutes poor classroom management, and how this impacts teaching and learning. Participants will share and evaluate their own ideas and personal practice in their educational institution(s). You will also discuss the need for establishing and maintaining clear and consistent ground rules, creating your own personal classroom code in the process.

Planning & Preparation - Day 2

You will investigate how a well-thought out lesson plan and strategic groupings can engage students in order to promote good classroom behaviour and positive participation. You will also discuss if collaborative planning and sharing of resources and ideas is common practice in your establishment.

Offsite Training - Day 3

Our offsite training day will include a trip to one of Malta's top attractions. You will take part in a cultural experience, and this will form the basis of a course-related presentation which will be delivered at the end of the week.

Differentiation and Different Ideas - Day 4

You will be introduced to a range of simple, yet effective and engaging, teaching ideas to promote a dynamic sense in students' learning, which in turn will create positive attitudes and lead to progression. Participants will then have the opportunity to design, create and assess their own engaging educational activity for use in the classroom.

The Teacher & Summing Up - Day 5

We will begin by encouraging you to understand the importance of the teacher within the classroom and that you, as an effective classroom manager, are a role model to many young people. Thereafter, you will plan and deliver an interesting and engaging presentation, or learning episode, based on the offsite training day activities you experienced on Day 3.

Customised courses

CSR programme - Cherkasy group

A group of lovely young adults from Ukraine visited Malta and studied at Alpha school of English under the CSR programme.

Our aim of the customised course was to teach the students useful English that would help them in their future endeavours and prospects.

The students were extremely pleased with the course as well as the additional excursions that were offered by the school in the afternoon.

Schoonhoven College

The professionals from a college in the Netherlands described their customised course as 'one that was tailored to our aim of learning new ways of integrating the English language whilst bearing in mind technological advances such as AI'. Students also appreciated the excursions that were provided in the afternoon which were active, engaging, and provided a unique cultural experience. Some examples of their customised excursions were the Mdina treasure hunt, showcasing the use of tablets in activities, and building bridges using spaghetti to promote teamwork as well as other activities promoting teamwork and showcasing how targeted English phrases can be included in engaging, effective ways.

We create customised courses for small groups of any age, professionals in companies, schools, government institutions and many more. Feel free to contact us with how you would like to have the course customised and we can design an unforgettable experience both in- and outside of the classroom!

Attended APP Course: Leading with impact

I spent a great time in Alpha school! The teacher Sarah was well prepared and adapted the course to our needs. My areas of focus were politics, law and economy. The lessons were useful and also fun. We laughed a lot and had a lot of fruitful discussions. On Wednesday we had a very interesting excursion to Mdina, Rabat and Mosta with Maria. Her passion for her home country shone through and impressed us. I would definitely recommend Alpha School to everyone who wants to improve their English and combine it with a holiday feeling in a wonderful surrounding. Thanks to all for the hospitality! As Arnold Schwarzenegger said: "I'll be back!"

I'm glad that I had the opportunity to join the professional course with such a great teacher. I had pinned my hopes on Alpha School for a great course and it has definitely met my expectations.

Thank you teacher Amber for your guidance, inspiration to explore new possibilities, and for a very enjoyable time. Courses such as this one add motivation and that was my main goal. It's time to spread my wings and go beyond the school walls. I hope that I will get to return to Alpha School of English again in the near future. Thank you for everything!

I really enjoyed the professional training course at Alpha School in Malta. The course not only provided me with valuable knowledge but also significantly improved my English skills. David was the best instructor I have ever had in any international course. His teaching methods and engaging approach made the learning experience truly exceptional. The most useful parts of the course were the interactive sessions and practical exercises, which helped me apply what I learned in real-life scenarios. Thank you for such a wonderful experience!

I am satisfied with the education, the classes were interesting and in a good mood. I got a lot of useful information which I will start using in my place of work. Our teacher was extremely helpful, well prepared and kind.

The content of the course is really useful in the whole 5 days. Chris is a great teacher/mentor. When I first got here, I didn't feel confident in my skills and felt like I was drowning in my workplace. After only 5 days, I feel much better about myself and in general, I learned a lot in this course.

I would like to thank you for the work you do in this school. Although I was here for only one week, I encountered a friendly attitude, support and help. I am grateful for new ideas and sharing experiences on how to manage a classroom with young learners. I also highly appreciate the implementation of the trip to the city of Mdina, it was conducted at a professional level. I really enjoyed my stay in Malta and would definitely like to return to your Alpha school.

I want to thank Maria for the incredible field trips she guided. Her passion for history is evident and contagious, and it made the trips to Mdina and Valetta not only educational but also memorable. I was particularly caught by her firsthand accounts, which added a valuable personal dimension to contemporary Maltese history. Thank you for making history come alive.

Cultural Excursion Programme for Teachers & Professionals

Cultural excursions - overview

For each course, under course specifications, an optional cultural excursion programme is shown.

The optional cultural excursion programme includes 3 different activities which are:

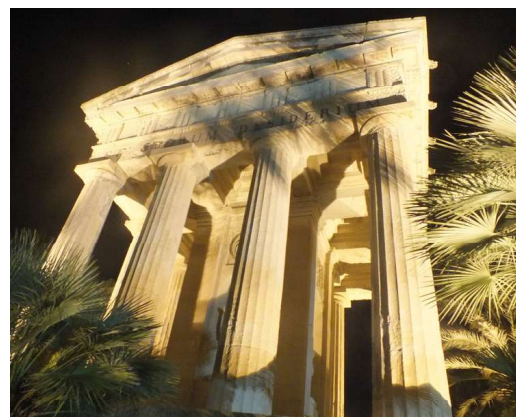

- Valletta by night
- Mdina by night
- Folklore dinner at Ta Marija, showcasing a range of Maltese food and dishes

In summer, there might be other activities available such as a boat trip to Comino.

Valletta by night - evening tour

Malta's capital city after the sun has gone down is sometimes seen as a completely different city. The shops close but the bars open, bringing a new dimension to this historic town and making the city feel even more alive. Come join this amazing walking tour, seeing the best sites of Valletta at night time and absorbing the amazing and unique feel that this city offers its visitors.

Mdina by night - evening tour

Walk around the magical city of Mdina which becomes even more magical in the evening! Your guide will tell you loads of tales about what is called 'The Silent City' which you will be able to experience for yourself as well.

Maltese Folklore dinner

Enjoy some amazing Maltese dishes whilst watching and listening to Maltese folklore. The Maltese cuisine is a unique one and includes traditional produce such as gbejna (cheese), rabbit and galletti with bigilla.

2025 - Terms and Conditions

Classes and courses

1. Students intending to study in Malta need to check if a visa is required. Please visit <http://www.foreign.gov.mt> for up to date information.
2. All group courses start on a Monday and end on a Friday. At the school's discretion, special arrangements may be made to start courses mid-week to coincide with students' flights. Lessons are held between 08:30 and 16:30.
