Standard Course

The morning lessons take place together with other participants in our German courses at levels B2/C1.
The main goal is to train speaking and listening skills. The thematic focus corresponds to the topic of the module. The content varies and is also adapted to the participants' interests and needs—for example, current political or cultural topics, grammar, slang, idioms, listening comprehension, etc.

Module-Specific Content

In the afternoons, seminars and workshops are held that explore the content of the respective module in more depth and from a methodological-didactic perspective.
A list of possible topics can be found in the module descriptions.
